DSBN Students win Laidlaw Bus Safety Contest

Nathaniel Abraham, a grade 5 student at Plymouth School in Welland, and Chelsey Wilson, a Grade 9 student at Grimsby Secondary School, recently placed first in their grade categories in the Laidlaw Bus Safety Poster/Essay Contest.

Bus Safety Week was held during the week of October 16-20. This year's theme was, "I see the driver...the driver sees me."

The contest was open to students, grades JK/SK-2, 3-5, 6-8 and 9-12 from the District School Board of Niagara and separate boards across the Niagara Region.

For their efforts, Nathaniel will receive a class trip to the Bird Kingdom in Niagara Falls and Chelsey will receive 40 tickets to a Hamilton Tiger Cats football game, transportation for both events provided by Laidlaw.
