The Sun will come out for Nelles

The sun will come out tomorrow as the curtain rises on, ANNIE JR., the first production ever at Nelles School in Grimsby.

All students from kindergarten through grade six have been working hard and practicing for the past two and a half months in order to see this musical come to fruition.

“This has been a collaboration between staff, students and parents,” explained Lorne Gretsinger, Principal, Nelles Public School.

The periphery of the gym has been turned into the skyline of New York City circa 1920’s. The breathtaking sets were all designed by parent, Christina Clarke. A true collaborative effort by students, teachers, secretaries and caretakers.

“This is the first time Nelles has endeavoured to put on a production of this magnitude which showcases the talents of each and every student. This arts experience will stay with students for a lifetime.” concluded Gretsinger.
