DSBN Appoints New Superintendent of Business

The District School Board of Niagara is pleased to announce the appointment of Jane Roth, CMA, to the position of Superintendent of Business. In this role, Jane will lead the effective management of all the business and financial affairs of the Board.

Jane Roth brings over 20 years financial experience in the education sector with both the Oxford County Board of Education and the Thames Valley District School Board, where she most recently held the position of Manager of Financial Services.

“We are delighted to have someone of Jane’s calibre join the DSBN team,” said Warren Hoshizaki, Director of Education. “Her integrity, leadership, and commitment to results will be the perfect complement to our senior administrative team.”

Trustee Dalton Clark, Chair of the Board’s Finance Committee noted that Jane’s extensive experience will be a tremendous asset. “Jane’s expertise and knowledge of the current funding issues that face school boards will be invaluable in her role with the DSBN.”

Witnessing the achievements of students has motivated Jane throughout her career. “Working as part of a group to develop and foster an environment that allows all students to succeed is very fulfilling,” she says.

Jane Roth’s appointment with the District School Board of Niagara takes effect on October 29, 2007.
